

Journalism Education Association (JEA) Conflict of Interest Annual Disclosure - December 2022

Full name	List any boards of scholastic media organizations with which you are affiliated.	List any vendors you work with in the process of advising student publications.	List any company, college, media organization or business which compensates you for teaching courses/workshops or writing educational articles.	List any other possible conflicts of interest. Examples include non-financial conflicts that influence loyalty, such as advocacy positions and professional association positions, and also financial conflicts that include selling goods or services, work done for advertisers or sponsors, employment connections by spouse or partner.	Please type your initials to signify that you have reviewed JEA's conflict of interest policy and you understand it is your obligation to disclose a conflict of interest, or appearance of a conflict, to the chair of the board or executive director when a conflict, or appearance of a conflict, arises. When there is a question as to whether a significant conflict exists, the matter shall be resolved by vote of the board, excluding the person(s) concerning whose situation the doubt has arisen.	Date
